

Advisory Meeting prior to Introductory Project I

(obligatory according to § 10 (8) of the examination regulations as of August 2023)

This meeting of advisor and student discusses the progress of the student within the master program and the plan for the 1-year research phase, consisting of the introductory projects I & II and the final research module which includes the master thesis.

General Information

Student (name, matrikel no.)
Supervisor
Date of Meeting

Information on the Thesis work

Area of Specialization for the Master thesis
Tentative title or subject of the thesis
Planned beginning of Introductory Project I
Subject of Introductory Project I

Points to be considered (please tick the respective boxes afterwards)

Current study status of the student (as documented by an up-to-date transcripts of records)
Outline of the planned thesis subject (e.g. amount of preparation needed, kind of experiments to perform, etc.)
Funding options/available positions

All required exams have been successfully completed

The research module/thesis can only be registered after the student has passed all the required exams (including the Primary Area of Specialization) and both introductory projects are completed.

The minimal duration for the research module is 4 months, the maximal is 6 months.

Both supervisor and the student aim for finishing the Master thesis in a timely manner, i.e. the research phase should take in total one year.

Signature of student

Signature of supervisor